

As an Atlassian Platinum & Enterprise Solution Partner, we support companies with our expert knowledge of Atlassian products and their applications. With our services and solutions, we support the digital transformation of all sizes of companies across all industries and also promote innovation and progress in business areas beyond the traditional IT company.

We are currently seeking for remote interns who will be responsible for writing scripts and developing apps for the Atlassian stack. This remote Internship position is suitable for recent graduates or current bachelor students.

Requirements

- New graduate or 3/4th year student at Computer Science or related discipline
- Able to work at least 3 days a week
- Technical skills complimentary to the field of interest
- Experience with Java programming language
- Proficiency with Spring framework is a plus
- Strong googling skills
- No experience is required but previous coding internship is a huge plus

Responsibilities

- Developing apps with object-oriented programming concepts OOP forms and Java programming language
- Writing scripts with Groovy for Jira
- Administering Jira Applications, configuring projects, system administration, designing workflows
- Setting up new environments to host Atlassian applications, including Server and Data Center
- Assisting clients with new environment setup based on best practices and recommendations
- Installations and configurations of new Atlassian applications
- Upgrades of existing Atlassian applications to the latest versions
- Consolidations of multiple Atlassian applications and environments
- Integrations with 3rd party tools into Atlassian applications
- Migrations to/from Atlassian Cloud
- Installations and configurations of external authentication systems, such as AD, LDAP, SAML, SSO, OKTA, OneLogin, etc.
- Installations and configurations of third-party add-ons for Atlassian tools to provide enhanced capabilities
- Provide support to client administrators and users to ensure the success of implemented solutions
- Troubleshoot various issues and problems and design creative technical solutions
- Good work ethic and the ability to work with diverse teams across different time zones

