Software Engineer - C++

Qualifications:

- BS in computer/electronics engineering, mathematics or related fields
- 2+ years experience in C/C++, GCC, GDB on Unix/Linux
- Good understanding of object-oriented programming, network programming, algorithms, data structures
- SIP, SDP, RTP, SRTP VoIP protocols knowledge is plus
- PostgreSQL database experience desired
- Develop quality code that adheres to required standards
- Good understanding of software development life cycle and methodologies
- Familiar with different development methodologies (unit testing, test-driven development, agile)
- Ability to work well in a team and individual level
- Fast adaptation to company environments and ambition of self-improvement
- Excellent inter-personal, team working and communication skills
- Good command of English in both written and verbal
- No military obligation or postponed for at least 2 years for male candidates.

Job Description:

As a part of the development team, you will be responsible for design and development of new software products.

Working in our environment involves continuous good communication with your team and other stakeholders and technical specialists. Excellent communication skills (written and verbal) and a positive, open, flexible attitude are important for this role.